

When the Cat in the Hat Returns

It was a hot day when the Cat in the Hat returned, we couldn't go out or we would get sunburned. When the Cat came in he said, "Yo, little man let's go get a tan!" We laughed at his joke and offered him a coke. As soon as he drank he turned blue and choked. We took it away and he said, "Good day! I must be on my way, Peace Out!"
